

Bullying Prevention and Awareness Resources for Staff

Websites	Purpose
www.stopbullying.gov	Provides information from various government agencies on what bullying is, what cyberbullying is, who is at risk, and how to prevent and respond to bullying. Content for this website is provided by the partners on the StopBullying.gov Editorial Board, which includes the Department of Education, the Department of Health and Human Services, and the Department of Justice.
http://starsnashville.org/	To support young people in overcoming social and emotional barriers through creative and innovative programs centering on prevention, intervention, treatment, training and compassion.
http://www.violencepreventionworks.org	Provides general information about bullying behavior and its impact on school climate, students' physical, social and emotional health, and academic achievement.
www.adl.org	Provides information on ways to fight anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry in the U.S. and abroad through information, education, legislation, and advocacy. The ADL serves as a resource for government, media, law enforcement, educators, and the public. A leader in the development of materials, programs and services, the ADL builds bridges of communication, understanding, and respect among diverse groups, carrying out its mission throughout the United States and Israel.

www.casel.org	Provides information on ways to advance the development of academic, social, and emotional competence for all students. CASEL's mission is to help make evidence-based social and emotional learning (SEL) an integral part of education from preschool through high school. Through research, practice, and policy, CASEL collaborates to ensure all students become knowledgeable, responsible, caring and contributing members of society.
www.clemson.edu/olweus/	Provides information on the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program (OB PP) through Clemson University with a focus on bullying prevention research, OBPP training information, and ongoing programming and training support of our National Olweus Trainers/Consultants.
www.cyberbullying.us	Provides up-to-date information about the nature, extent, causes, and consequences of cyberbullying among adolescents. Cyberbullying can be defined as "Willful and repeated harm inflicted through the use of computers, cell phones, and other electronic devices." It is also known as "cyber bullying," "electronic bullying," "e-bullying," "sms bullying," "mobile bullying," "online bullying," "digital bullying," or "Internet bullying."

www.glsen.org/research	Provides resources and strategies to ensure that every student is valued and treated with respect, regardless of their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. The organization believes that all students deserve a safe and affirming school environment where they can learn and grow and works to accomplish its goals by championing LGBT issues in K-12 education.
www.loveourchildrenusa.org/stopschoolviolence.php	Provides information on fighting all forms of violence and neglect against children in the U.S.
www.naafa.org	Provides a clearinghouse of information concerning the ways adolescents use and misuse technology. It is intended to be a resource for parents, educators, law enforcement officers, counselors, and others who work with youth. Here you will find facts, figures, and detailed stories from those who have been directly impacted by online aggression. In addition, the site includes numerous resources to help you prevent and respond to cyberbullying incidents.
www.olweus.org	Provides comprehensive information about bullying behavior and its impact on school climate, students' physical, social and emotional health, and academic achievement. Website is maintained by the Hazelden Foundation.

www.pacer.org/bullying	Provides information on ways to actively lead social change, so that bullying is no longer considered an accepted childhood rite of passage. Provides innovative resources for students, parents, educators, and others, and recognizes bullying as a serious community issue that impacts education, physical and emotional health, and the safety and well-being of students.
www.pto.org	Provides information from the National Parent Teacher Organization to help local PTO's succeed in goal attainment. Provides resources for parent leaders to contribute to a wonderful school life experience and help students in their schools.
www.teachingtolerance.org	Provides a place where educators who care about diversity, equity and justice can find news, suggestions, conversation and support.
www.thebullyproject.com	Provides information about The Bully Project and ways educators, parents, students, and other concerned community members can focus on bullying awareness and prevention.
www.tn.gov/education/topic/bullying-and-harassment	Provides information from the Tennessee State Department of Education on what the Tennessee Code Annotated requires of school districts regarding the prohibition of bullying and harassment and procedures for investigating reports of bullying and harassment. Provides definitions and information and resources for both parents and school systems.

www.UnderstandingPrejudice.org

Provides educational resources and information on prejudice, discrimination, multiculturalism, and diversity, with the ultimate goal of reducing the level of intolerance and bias in contemporary society.